

Residential Projects Volunteer Job Definition

Purpose To help with the running of the Phab Residential Projects, ensuring that the aims and philosophy of Phab are met. To attend training sessions as and when required.

Qualifications A friendly and outgoing nature, be patient, polite, trustworthy and reliable.

Responsibilities: You will be seen to represent Phab in all your contacts as a volunteer.

To be aware of your surroundings and maintain a watchful eye on all participants during activities.

To ensure that all participants are enjoying themselves and making friends.

To encourage participants to join in with all activities

To befriend participants and alleviate homesickness

Do not over commit yourself.

Communicate at all times with the Project Leader

Never put yourself or others at risk

Report any potential hazards, accidents or perceived risk areas.